1. General Rally Rules:

1.00
a.	The competition is open to all members from Quebec 4-H clubs, as well as any invited clubs.
b.	All ages are as of January 1 st of the year of the Rally. Non-host club participants must be aged 12-25 years old to participate at Rally. 6-11 year olds from the host club may participate in all sections so long as they are accompanied by an adult. Members ages 6 – 25 who cannot attend Rally may send life skills entries with their club. The points for all 6-11 year olds will NOT count towards the club aggregate.
с.	NO ALCOHOL AND/OR ILLEGAL SUBSTANCES is allowed on the fairgrounds. See Quebec 4-H Provincial and General Activities Policies.
d.	Participants may not stay at the fairgrounds unless camping on site has been approved by the Board. They will be billeted with a 4-H family if they desire, or are expected to find their own lodgings. The barns and the life skills buildings will be closed to participants and adults from 11:30 p.m. to 4:30 a.m., only security people designated by Quebec 4-H will be allowed in restricted areas during those times.
e.	All placings stand as read until published by Quebec 4-H.
f.	A participant may enter projects in more than one section, but only one may count for points. The highest scoring project will be used for their individual aggregate score.
g.	No competitor shall interfere with the judges in the performance of their duties. Upon the discovery of any fraud, dishonest practice or misrepresentation in regard to any exhibit which may have been intended to influence the decision of the judges, the Executive Committee has the power to withhold any points gained by the participant(s) involved, as well as to suspend the offending party(ies) for up to a period of three years.
h.	While the Directors and Executive of Quebec 4-H will take every precaution against accidents on the fairgrounds, the owners and exhibitors must themselves take all risks of loss or damages to or by their stock or manufactured articles while in exhibition. All persons run risks of accidents, including fire and theft, while on the grounds.
i.	Anyone failing to comply with the rules of the Provincial Rally may be suspended from participating in the event, at the discretion of the Executive Committee.
j.	Participants cannot enter the same project/entry (with the exception of horses) for more than two consecutive years without a request for exception being submitted 14 days prior to the registration deadline, which then must be accepted by the Programs and Regulations Committee.
k.	Each Club must submit the name and contact information of one chaperone who will be present at the Rally.

2. Financial & Registration Policies

a.	Pre-registration for participants and projects can be processed through AssistExpo by June 7 th , 2019 (11:59PM). The fee due at pre-registration is $90 per participant (including 1 project) and $20 per each additional project. The fees are non-refundable. In the case of emergency or exceptional circumstances, a participant who must cancel may send a letter explaining their reasons to the Financial Committee to be considered for a refund.
b.	No changes of project type will be allowed within 10 business days prior to the first day of Rally. In the case of exceptional circumstances, a request must be submitted to the Executive Committee.
C.	Participants who send Life Skills entries to Rally with their club but who do not attend Rally in person shall pay the $20 project fee only.
d.	A late registration fee of $20 will be charged to all entries received after June 7 th , 2019 and up until 10 business days prior to Rally.
e.	No pre-registrations will be accepted within 10 business days prior to the first day of Rally.
f.	A deposit of $20.00/animal in the form of a club cheque (NO CASH) will be requested at registration. This cheque will be destroyed and/or returned once the stalls occupied by your club have been cleaned to the host club's satisfaction.

3. Public Speaking Competition:

a.	Public speaking topics, including those suggested by other organizations, shall be approved by the Programs and Regulations Committee and supplemented by topics determined by the host club.
b.	Length of speeches, excluding thank-you and introduction, is as follows:
	6 – 11 year olds – 3 to 4 minutes
	12 – 25 year olds – 5 to 7 minutes
с.	Speeches will be judged based on the following:
	60 marks for presentation
	60 marks for content
	• 15 marks for thank-you 15 marks for introduction
	Overtime or Under-time deduction marks
	<ul> <li>1 – 10 seconds 2 mark deduction</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>11 – 20 seconds 5 mark deduction</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>20 or more 15 mark deduction</li> </ul>
d.	Contestants may use a flip chart or appropriate poster to illustrate their speech but must provide them.
	Slides, films, videos or overhead projectors will not be allowed.
e.	The overall winner will be encouraged to participate at the CYSA competition.

4. Life Skills Competition:

2	Members may send their Life Skills entries with their club and are not obliged to be at the Rally for the
a.		thes with their trub and are not obliged to be at the Kally for the weekend.
b.	All items MUST have been prepared/r	nade by the participant. All handmade items MUST include a small sample of material used.
с.	A participant must enter a total of fou	r (4) classes prepared prior to Rally plus one (1) live competition completed at Rally to be able to receive	ve full points. Partial points will be awarded for the entries not accompanied by the full five (5) classe	s.
d.	To earn full points, competitors will be	e required to complete a 5th entry on site during Rally. The category will be announced at the Rally. Specif	ications and supplies will be provided at registration on the Thursday evening of Rally or during the supervis	sed class on Friday. Entries must be submitted no later than 12:00 noon on Saturday.
e.	From the list of categories, the host cl	ub will propose 8 to 10 class specifications to the Programs and Except for the one compulsory class to be completed at Rally, participants may choose which classes
	- Vegetables	- Flowers
	- Potted Plant	- Photography
	- Drawing/Painting	- Sewing
	- Handicraft	- Woodworking
	- Food -	Collection
	- Other category suggested by ho	st club and approved by Programs and Regulations Committee
f.	Articles will be judged based on the fo
	$\circ$ 50 marks for effort $\circ$ 25 marks for theme $\circ$ 25 marks for presentation for a total possible 100 marks per artic	cle.
L

5. Judging Competition:

a	ı.	The judging competition will take place on the Friday of Rally.
k	).	The competition is open to all participants aged 12 – 25 years old as well as 6 -11 year olds from the host club.

С.	Each class will be 12 minutes, unless otherwise indicated.
d.	This is an individual effort. Any participant(s) caught talking will receive a warning, and if caught a second time during that particular class, their card will be destroyed for that class. Any participants caught cheating will have their cards destroyed for that class.
e.	Participants present at the Rally must judge all classes.
f.	JUDGING COMPETITION CLASSES:
	There will be:
	- 3 Livestock Classes
	- 3 Life Skills Classes
	- 1 Identification Class
	- 1 Mystery Class
	Two of the classes will have oral reasons to accompany the placings; two of the classes will have written reasons to accompany the placings; two of the classes will be placings only.
	Class specifications will be provided by the host club.

6. Fitting Competition:

	ung compe
a.	-		e entered in each section i.e. Dairy/Beef/or Sheep if sufficient number of an be made available
b.			ch section but only one will count. The team counting for points must be club registration form.
с.			60 minutes. 5 minutes to look over the animal and 55 minutes preparation.
d.	In the eve	nt that the animals n	nay not be clipped, teams will be allotted 5 minutes to look over the animal nutes for fitting.
e.	Teams wil	l consist of a maximu	um of three participants.
f.	Only one of	of the participants m	ay be 21 years of age or over, as of the first of January of that year.
g.	No outside	e help is allowed; on	ly the three participants may confer. Infractions will result in disqualification.
h.	Participan	ts are allowed to use	e the contents of one show box. The Box will be open for the judge to see, he/she ma	ay ask questions on t	he contents. All equipment including an extension cord should be supplied by the team.
i.	Each team	will have access to o	one electrical outlet.
j.	If any brea	aker blows, there wil	l be a time delay for someone to return the power
k.	Participan	ts are not allowed to	eave the fitting area after the time has started.
Ι.	Fitting is n	ot necessary for the	head or below the hock.
m.		<ul> <li>– there will be no el out one inch"</li> </ul>	ectric clippers used; only hand shears. The animals will not have too much
	SCORING	BREAKDOWN
n.	Each team	n will be judged as fo	llows:
	/20	1.) Team Work:	- Consultation amongst team members
			- Politeness
			- All team members involved
	/15	2.) Knowledge	- Use of equipment
			- Use of sprays and supplies
			- Analyzing conformation of the animal
	/25	3.) Skill	- Clipping
	125	5.7 JKII	- Use of hair (wool)
			- Fitting Job
	/25	4.) Overall result	- Most improvement of animal

			- Corrected weaknesses
			- General appearance
	/10	5.) Safety	<ul> <li>Working with animal</li> <li>Working with equipment</li> <li>Personal dress</li> <li>Attention to surroundings</li> </ul>
	/5	6.) Use of time	<ul> <li>Best use of time allowed</li> <li>Animal ready to show at end of time</li> </ul>
	/100	total possible marks
0.	ONLY exh	ibiting 4-H member	s in good standing may fit animals.

7. Costume Class:

a.	Clubs may enter more than one entry; however, they must specify which counts for points prior to entering the ring.
b.	Each entry must contain an animal. Clubs without livestock may borrow an animal from another club, but it is suggested that these arrangements be made before Rally.
С.	Each entry should meet the following criteria:
	1. Minimum 1 participant aged 12-25 years. No limit on total number of participants.
	2. Minimum 1 animal per club, maximum 3 animals.
	3. At least 1 animal must be costumed.
	4. All participants must be costumed.
	5. Costumes must comply with current Rally theme.
	Each criterion met will award the club 10 points.

8. Livestock Competition:

<ul> <li>a. The choice of animal must be indicated on the project registration form, and may not be changed within ten business days prior to the-first day of Rally, except when an animal is sick, dies or is sold. In order to have an alternate animal count for points the participant must produce medical proof signed by a recognized veterinarian, or proof of sale, or other proof deemed acceptable by the executive committee prior to the close of registration on Thursday.</li> <li>b. Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects</li> <li>c. Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals f</li></ul>
<ul> <li>have an alternate animal count for points the participant must produce medical proof signed by a recognized veterinarian, or proof of sale, or other proof deemed acceptable by the executive committee prior to the close of registration on Thursday.</li> <li>b. Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects.</li> <li>c. Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	a.
<ul> <li>recognized veterinarian, or proof of sale, or other proof deemed acceptable by the executive committee prior to the close of registration on Thursday.</li> <li>Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects</li> <li>Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>prior to the close of registration on Thursday.</li> <li>Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects.</li> <li>Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>b. Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects.</li> <li>c. Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		recognized veterinarian, or proof of sale, or other proof deemed acceptable by the executive committee
<ul> <li>c. Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		prior to the close of registration on Thursday.
<ul> <li>animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.</li> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	b.	Participants may register a maximum of 2 livestock projects.
<ul> <li>d. Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	с.	Animals will be checked as they are getting off the trucks; any animals with contagious diseases and any
<ul> <li>their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		animals missing their ATQ tags (or the equivalent identification) will be sent home.
<ul> <li>Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	d.	Animals, with the exception of nursing beef calves for which special arrangements can be made must be in
<ul> <li>least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.</li> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		their place by 8:00 a.m. the Friday of the Rally and must remain in their place until after the banquet on the
<ul> <li>e. A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.</li> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		Saturday night. Requests to arrive late or leave early must be addressed to the Executive Committee at
<ul> <li>f. To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.</li> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>		least 10 days prior to the first day of Rally. All animals must be moved out by 11 a.m. Sunday.
<ul> <li>g. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	-	A vet will be available (on call) if needed but the member is liable for all expenses.
<ul> <li>than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	-
<ul> <li>animals.</li> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	f.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type.
<ul> <li>h. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.</li> </ul>	f.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.	f.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.	f.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3
the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age category.	f. g.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals.
category.	f. g.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space
	f. g.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When
i. When there are fewer than 3 Proven members showing an animal they will show in the finals of the Senior	f. g.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that
	f. g.	To be considered an official livestock competition, there must be at least 3 animals of that project type. The judge has the discretion to combine classes under the following circumstances. If there are less than 3 animals in a class, those animals may be combined with a similar age within their breed. If there are less than 3 animals of a given breed, they may be combined with another breed which also has less than 3 animals. Should the showmanship classes exceed 20 entries per class or should the dimensions of the show space necessitate it, the classes will be reorganized into heats with a maximum of 20 entries per heat. When classes need to be reorganized, they will be divided by the age of the participant. It will be suggested that the judge select the top 5 participants in each heat to move on to show in finals for each respective age showmanship class. Proven members will be ranked by the judge amongst the Seniors and will be awarded points in accordance with those placings. Seniors ranked by the judge below any Proven member will be placed, receive ribbons and points as if the Proven members were not there.

j.	All participants must have a form of proof that the animal they are showing is the animal that they registered for the Rally. ATQ numbers and registration papers will be verified upon arrival.
	BEEF:
	- All purebred/full blood heifers must have registration papers DAIRY:
	<ul> <li>All animals must be registered at least 50% purebred and have papers</li> </ul>
	- Any animals without papers should contact their breed association for official documents
	- Any animals without papers will be shown in a grade class
	SHEEP:
	- All animals must have registration certificates
	- Any animals without papers will be shown in a grade class
	GOATS:
	<ul> <li>All animals must be legibly tattooed or tagged and all animals over 1 year of age must have registration papers</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>Any animals without papers will be shown in a grade class</li> </ul>
	<ul> <li>A photo showing all markings must be sent in with registration</li> </ul>
	DRAFT HORSES:
	- Certificates of registration, as recorded in the Canadian National Livestock Records, must be presented at registration
	- The age of the horse will be calculated from January 1st of the current year
	- Any animals without papers will be shown in the grade class
	- Coggins test mandatory
	- Stallions over the age of 2 cannot be shown LIGHT HORSES:
	- Registration certificates must be provided at registration
	- A photo showing all markings must be sent in with registration for any animals that are not registered
	- Coggins test mandatory
	- Stallions over age of 2 cannot be shown RABBITS
	<ul> <li>A photo showing all markings must be sent in with registration</li> </ul>
	POULTRY
	<ul> <li>A photo showing all markings must be sent in with registration</li> </ul>
	SWINE
	- Individual ID tags will be verified.
	- License plate numbers will be recorded to comply with PigTrace reporting standards.
	- A photo or drawing showing all markings must be sent in with registration
k.	During the event non-participants are restricted from fitting or working with an animal or instructing members in those endeavors. After a warning to the offending member, non-member and club, if there is a second infraction within the same club then the executive members on hand will confer and may deduct 50 points from the individual member and/or 250 points from the club's total aggregate score.

9. Dress Code:

a.	All participants must wear a Rally shirt as well as Beef – black pants
	Dairy – white pants
	Sheep – black pants
	Meat Goats – black pants
	Dairy goats – white pants

Horses, draft and light – black pants Rabbits – white pants Poultry – white pants Swine - white Pants

10. Points Systems for Individual Competitions:

	onto systems for marriada competitions.
a.	All placings are at the judge's discretion.
b.	Public Speaking Competition – Based on total marks, participants will be ranked within their age category and given points descending by 10 points per placing, 1 st place being 400 points.
С.	Life Skills Competition - Based on total marks, participants will be ranked within their age category and given points descending by 10 points per placing, 1 st place being 400 points.
d.	Judging Competition – There are six classes with placings worth 50 points each; four of those classes include reasons for an additional 50 points each. The Mystery and Identification classes are worth 100 points each. The total possible for the Judging Competition is 700 points.
e.	Livestock Competition – Conformation Classes are worth 100 points and Showmanship Classes are worth 300 points for a total possible 400 points for the Livestock Competition.
	Conformation Classes - All classes will be placed as follows: Top 10 with points descending by 5 points, 1 st place being 100 points. The remainder will be placed in B group for 40 points or C group for 30 points.
	Showmanship Classes - All classes will be placed with points descending by 10 points, 1 st place being 300 points. In classes where there are heats, the participants not going on to the finals will start with the placing immediately following the last placing of the finals Champion Classes – No extra points are awarded for Champion Classes.
f.	Individual Aggregate - Awards will be given in all age categories (6-11, 12-15, 16-21, 22-25) as well as overall based on the top ten participants with the highest combined score from Judging Competition and points from their project (out of a total of 1,100 points).

11. Points Systems for Group Competitions:

a.	Barn Display: Each club will place its animals in a designated space for the duration of the Rally. These club spaces will be judged 40% for cleanliness, 25% general appearance, 25% theme and 10% courtesy.
	Decorations will be encouraged, but judges will be looking for quality, rather than quantity. Based on total marks, clubs will be ranked and given points descending by 5 points per placing, 1 st place being 100 points.
b.	Fitting Competition: Teams will be ranked with others fitting the same breed based on total marks. 100 points will be awarded for 1 st place, 95 for 2 nd and so on with points descending by 5 points per placing.
C.	Costume Class: Teams will be awarded 10 points for each criterion met up to a maximum of 50 points. No partial points will be awarded
d.	Club Aggregate: This will be computed by taking the club's top 5 individual aggregate scores (12 – 25 years old), barn display, costume class, and designated fitting score.
e.	Bonus Points: Clubs will be awarded 10 points for each different project category the club enters up to a maximum of 30 points.

Any unforeseen circumstances will be dealt with by Executive Committee members that are not directly in conflict.